

Armada Groupe

Armada Groupe which has recently attended the European Floor & Wall Exhibition, has managed to attract the attention with its products that has the permanent solutions to important problems in the construction industry. Armada which has turkish origin, presented its world brand products for the construction industry to the exhibition. Professionals in the construction fields, end users and tech savvies have attended the European Floor & Wall Exhibition.

Armada Groupe has presented the new generation of economic and ecological product Support Eco Floating Floor bases. Our support eco brand product attracted attention above expectations. Armada Groupe and its partners which export 42 countries, have been increasing market share more and more and make a difference with the principle of customer-focused work as days pass...